

Privacy Policy

© Copyright Bodhiga 2014 All Rights Reserved.

Bodhiga (hereafter “the Company”) is firmly committed to your privacy. You should understand what we do with any personal information that you provide to us while using our site. That's why we've created this Privacy Statement, which discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices.

The Company reserves the right to modify or update our Privacy Policy at any time without notice, so we encourage you to review this policy from time to time.

Overview

In general, using our site as a site visitor may be considered anonymous: we do not engage in any activity that will personally identify our site visitors.

We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server, to administer our Web site, and to refine our site based on which features people use most often. Your IP address is also used to help identify you and to gather broad demographic information.

Registration

Using WWW.BODHIGA.COM does not require registration of any kind other than voluntary registration for white papers, investor kits, alumni correspondence and registration to conferences, webinars and net-sessions organized by The Company. The personal data collected will not be sold to anyone outside and will be solely used by The Company for a one-on-one contact with the registrants. Any information that we have collected or stored about you may be transferred to a future purchaser of our company and/or its assets. The data collected is stored in a secure server with our ISP which will take periodic backups of it but will not give or sell them to anyone.

Cookies

A "cookie" is a small piece of data that a website can send to your browser, which may then be stored on your system. Currently, we are using just session cookies in a select few pages, but we may use it more widely in the near future so that we can better serve you when you return to our site. You can set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie, giving you the chance to decide whether to accept it.

We sometimes collect anonymous information from visits to our website to help us provide better customer service. This anonymous information is sometimes known as "click stream data". We may use this data to analyze trends and statistics and to help us provide you with a better customer service. Cookies can be used to provide you with tailored information from a website.
